Living Away From Home
Basic Health/Medical Supply List

It is recommended that you bring basic health supplies and over-the-counter medicines so that you are prepared to handle minor illnesses and injuries while you’re away from home. Use a heating pad for muscle aches? Bring it! Prone to allergies? Bring your allergy medicine.

If you are covered by your parent’s health insurance and prescription plans, ask your parent to request an additional insurance and prescription card for you before you leave for college. Keep these cards in your wallet.

Bring a supply of the symptom-reliever medicines you take at home when ill such as Sudafed, Tylenol, Advil, nasal decongestant spray, cough medicines, etc. Learn how to use these medications wisely. Learn to recognize ailments needing self-care and those needing medical intervention.
